

Life Group Questions

1. Neither the passage nor Pastor Mark talked about dating relationships, but how do you think the principle of honoring your body would work in a dating relationship in terms of physical touch?
2. What do you think you “owe” to your spouse as a result of your marriage covenant?
3. What different ways can you apply the principle that a spouse has authority over the other’s body? How can this principle work without fostering spousal abuse?
4. How do you think the Biblical view of sex in marriage differs from our culture’s view?
5. What have you learned about how to value and relate to those who are single?
6. Would you always counsel a couple according to verse 9? Why or why not? Are there any other options for dealing with sexual passion besides getting married?
7. How would you counsel a single person who wonders why they have not yet gotten married?