John 1:1-13

1. What do the metaphors of Word and Light reveal about Jesus?
2. Jehovah's Witnesses translate John 1:1 to say, "In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was a god." Why is that an illegitimate translation?
3. Why do you think the Jews had such a hard time recognizing Jesus as God?
4. What about Jesus do you find hardest to believe?
5. How does Jesus enlighten every person?
6. What does it mean to receive Jesus?
7. How do you feel, knowing that you are a child of God?
8. Why is a new birth or second birth a good picture of salvation? Here John uses the imagery of birth to picture salvation. Paul uses the imagery of adoption (Rom. 8:15) to picture salvation. What key ideas does each metaphor convey about salvation?
9. With whom can you share the news of verse 12? Share their names so we can pray for them.
